JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

PLAINTIFF'S VERIFIED COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiff, David J. Catanzaro ("Plaintiff" or "Mr. Catanzaro"), complains of Blue Box Toys, Inc. ("Blue Box Toys") as follows:

I. JURISDICTION.

1. This is a claim for patent infringement under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code. This Court and other federal district courts have exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case under 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a).

II. VENUE.

2. Venue in this judicial district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) in that this is the judicial district in which a substantial part of the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred. Further, venue is proper as to each defendant under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b).

III. PARTIES.

3. Plaintiff currently resides at 286 Upper Powderly Street, Carbondale, Pennsylvania 18407. Plaintiff is the owner of United States Patent No. 7,653,959 B1 (the “‘959 patent”), entitled “Article Assembly,” that issued on February 2, 2010. Plaintiff has the sole right to sue for infringement of said patent. A copy of the ‘959 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

4. Upon information and belief, defendant Blue Box Toys is a New Jersey company with its principal place of business at 220 South Orange Ave., Suite #106 Livingston, NJ 07039

5. Plaintiff does not know the true identities of fictitious Defendants Does 1 through 50, but reserves the right to amend this complaint to add said defendants upon discovery of their true identities.

6. This court has personal jurisdiction over the named defendant.

IV. RELEVANT MATTER

7. The ‘959 patent is a continuation of U.S. Patent No. 6,026,532 (the ‘532 patent”) which was assigned to the Church & Dwight Co. on February 28, 2011, as part of a settlement agreement during a patent infringement lawsuit (David Catanzaro v. Procter & Gamble Co. et al.)

8. The ‘959 patent contained a Terminal Disclaimer whereby the Disclaimer stated that joint ownership of the ‘532 and ‘959 patent was required for the ‘959 patent to be enforceable.

9. It is believed Church & Dwight allowed the ‘532 patent to expire intentionally in February, 2012 for lack of paying the required maintenance fee.

10. Plaintiff filed a legal malpractice case in the Northern District of Ohio on May 2, 2013 against the attorneys who represented Plaintiff in the Procter & Gamble Co. et al. lawsuit (Case No. 1:13 CV 996 Catanzaro vs. Seamon Garson et al).

11. Within the pleadings of the above stated malpractice case Plaintiff alleged that he was induced to enter into a Patent Purchases, Settlement Agreement which caused Plaintiff to alienate his interest in the ‘532 patent and to give up his interest in the ‘959 patent.

12. Defendants maintained that the ‘959 patent was still enforceable, and that Plaintiff did not lose the right to enforce the ‘959 patent as a direct result of the expiration of ‘532 patent.

13. After near 20 months of litigation, Judge Dan A. Polster presiding Judge in the legal malpractice case, issued an order on December 15, 2014 (hereto as Exhibit B) stating that the court cannot issue an advisory opinion on the enforceability or unenforceability of the '959 patent and demanded that a judicial determination or order must be made within the context of a Patent infringement lawsuit.

15. Judge Dan A. Polster dismissed the case without prejudice and tolled the statute of limitations until there is a final judgment in a patent infringement litigation involving the '959 patent.

16. As a direct result of information exchanged and obtained in the malpractice lawsuit, along with the directed order imposed by Judge Polster to obtain a final order in an infringement action to be able to reopen the malpractice case, Plaintiff has 'sufficient reason' to presently assert that the '959 patent is enforceable from the time it issued on February 2, 2010 up-and-until its expiration date of December 30, 2016, with the exception being, from February 2011 through February 2012 when the '532 patent was enforceable by Church and Dwight.

V. CLAIMS.

COUNT I – DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

17. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 16, inclusive.

18. An actual, present and justiciable controversy has arisen between Plaintiff and Defendants regarding the '959 patent.

19. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201, et seq., Plaintiff seeks declaratory judgment from this Court that Defendant has infringed upon the '959 patent.

COUNT II – PATENT INFRINGEMENT

20. Blue Box Toys transacts business in this judicial district related to the ‘959 patent, without a license or permission from plaintiff. Defendant has infringed, induced others to infringe, and/or contributorily infringed, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, one or more claims of the ‘959 patent. Defendant did so by manufacturing, having manufactured, importing, using, offering for sale and/or selling products that embody and/or practice the patented invention, known as “Jungle Friends Shape n' Sort” product line.

22. Defendant Blue Box Toys transacts business in this judicial district and has committed acts of infringement in this judicial district by offering for sale and selling the Jungle Friends Shape n' Sort product line after February 2, 2010.

23. Plaintiff seeks damages for patent infringement against defendant for the maximum period of time permitted by law.

24. Defendant has directly infringed claims 1, 4, 5 & 8 of the ‘959 patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a). Upon information and belief, Defendant has also infringed claims 1, 4, 5 & 8 of the ‘959 patent by knowingly and actively inducing others to infringe in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b).

25. Upon information and belief, Defendants infringement of the ‘959 patent have been willful and deliberate. Defendants infringement has injured plaintiff.

VI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, David J. Catanzaro, respectfully requests that this Court enter Judgment against Defendants and against their subsidiaries, successors, parents, affiliates, directors, agents, servants, employees, and all persons in active concert or participation with them, granting the following relief:

- A. Issue a declaratory judgment stating that Defendants have infringed the '959 patent;
- B. Order an award of damages adequate to compensate Plaintiff for the infringement that has occurred, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty as permitted by 35 U.S.C. § 284, together with pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;
- C. Issue a finding that Defendants acts of infringement have been willful and ordering an award of increased damages as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- D. Order Defendants to pay plaintiff's reasonable attorney fees and costs of this action; and,
- E. Order such other relief that Plaintiff is entitled to under law and any other further relief that this Court or jury may deem just and proper.

VII. JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues presented in this complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

David J. Catanzaro
